Re: 2009 Best Practice Award Winners for the Energy Efficiency Partnership Program

We are pleased to announce the winners of the 2009 Best Practice Awards competition for the Energy Efficiency Partnership Program:

Overall Sustainable Design	UC Davis; Veterinary Medicine 3-B Cal Poly San Luis Obispo; Center for Sciences
HVAC Design/Retrofit	UC San Francisco; Mount Zion Research Center Cal Poly San Luis Obispo; HVAC Demonstration Projects
Lighting Design/Retrofit	UC Davis; Bi-Level Exterior Lighting System Cal Poly San Luis Obispo; Lighting Demonstration Projects
Monitoring-Based Commissioning	UC Berkeley; Tang Health Center CSU San Bernardino; Chemical Sciences
Student Energy Efficiency	UC San Diego; Green Campus Program Cal Poly San Luis Obispo; Green Campus Program
Student Sustainability Program	CSU Northridge; Satellite Chiller Plant and Subtropical Rainforest

In addition, honorable mentions are awarded to:

Overall Sustainable Design	UC Merced; Science and Engineering Building
Student Energy Efficiency	Humboldt State University; Green Campus Program

Thanks to each of you who submitted proposals and congratulations to our 2009 winners. The selection committee for each category would like to emphasize the difficulty of choosing winning projects as all campuses are doing excellent work.

We look forward to seeing presentations by the winners in selected award categories at the upcoming UC/CSU/CCC Sustainability Conference this June. You will be contacted in the near future with guidance on developing your presentation. In the meantime, if you have any questions please contact Andy Coghlan at (510) 987-0119.

Thank you again for your participation and for making the 2009 Best Practice Awards competition a great success.
